

What price would you put on quality service?

Tell us what we're worth to you!

What would you pay for an estate agent who;

- Is Pro-Active
- Is Trustworthy
- Markets your home on all principal property websites
- Is open 7 days a week
- Is professionally regulated by RICS
- Occupies prominently located, prestigious offices
- Achieves more than 3,000 Rightmove click-throughs every month?

At Quay Living we are so confident in the quality of our sales service that we are asking prospective vendors what fee they would be prepared to pay us!

If you are thinking of selling, why not get in touch? We'll give you a no-obligation and completely free assessment of your home's market value, tell you about our services, and then you can tell us what we're worth to you!

We very much look forward to being of service.
